

CONSTANTINE ALLEYNE

FOUNDER & PRESIDENT

MAIN SKILLS

- Superior knowledge of correctional health services
- Workforce development
- Leadership
- Analytical and strategic thinking
- Risk assessment/ Mitigation
- Cross-Functional Engagement

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Published "The Cage Was Her Cocoon: A Journey from Prison Administrator to Entrepreneur"
- Women We Admire - Top 100 Women Leaders of CT 2022 awardee
- Amistad Center for Art & Culture nominee for Business Person of the Year 2022
- Middle Atlantic States Correctional Association - Board of Trustees

EMAIL

Connie@CivilianCorrections.Academy

WEBSITE

www.ConnieAlleyne.com

ADDRESS

P.O. Box 793, Bloomfield, CT 06002

PERSONAL PROFILE

I'm Constantine Alleyne, an author, educator and former Prison Health Services Administrator with 22 years of progressive leadership experience in the forensic, public, and private sectors. I leverage my abilities to actively listen, rapidly synthesize varying viewpoints, and think clearly in order to assess complex environments and identify material solutions.

CORRECTIONAL EXPERIENCE

Civilian Corrections Academy

Founder & President | 2018 - present

- Identified a vulnerability in the industry and created an evidence-based path to effectively fill the civilian workforce knowledge gap

UConn- Correctional Managed Health Care

Prison Health Services Administrator | 2012-2017

- Developed and orchestrated facility health services operational plan including medical, nursing, mental health, substance use tx, social work, dental, discharge planning and re-entry support

NYC Dept of Health and Mental Hygiene

Health Services Manager | 2000-2010

- Supervised the comprehensive health care of a highly compromised inmate population under an evolving court monitorship

Monroe Community College

Adjunct Criminal Justice Professor | 2000-2010

- Teach first and second year students Prison, Punishment and Rehabilitation in America

EDUCATION BACKGROUND

University of Connecticut

Executive Master's in Business Admin | 2015-2017

Long Island University

Master's in Public Health | 2005 -2008